Mandatory Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) Board

View detailed position description

Term: Three-Years

Appointed by: State Supreme Court

Legal professionals in the state of Washington must continue their legal education throughout their careers in order to remain eligible to practice law. The MCLE Board plays a critical role in defining and determining compliance with the minimum education requirements under APR 11. The Board meets five times a year to consider MCLE policy issues and makes determinations on petitions, appeals, and special requests submitted by licensed legal professionals and CLE sponsors. This includes reviewing requests for waiver and extension of time to meet the minimum education requirements and holding hearings on denied requests. Board members also audit CLE courses throughout the year to ensure CLE providers are complying with APR 11. In addition to attending what are usually half-day meetings, members should expect to spend several hours reviewing materials prior to the meetings. Individuals with diverse backgrounds, teaching experience, and technology skills are encouraged to apply.
